Fill the Bowl for the Souper Bowl!

Help us defeat hunger! To celebrate Super Bowl Sunday, you are invited to bring in food items for the Media Food Bank.

Our Souper Bowl of Caring will be a bit different this year. We have found that food pantries often have an overabundance of canned soup, and are desperately in need of other items. In order to meet this need, we will be collecting the following items this year:

- Vegetable oil or olive oil
- Honey
- Dried pinto or kidney beans
- Canned fish (tuna, sardines, salmon)

Please bring your items to Reformation no later than February 13, Super Bowl Sunday. Contact Linda Bucher or one of the pastors with questions. Thank you for supporting our neighbors in need!

Ash Wednesday

Our Lent journey begins on Ash Wednesday – March 2. Worship will be held at 12:00 noon and 7:30 pm. The 7:30 pm service will be livestreamed.

If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it.

Sock Collection

The "Joy of Sox," an organization founded 11 years ago, collects socks for people living in homelessness.

Socks are the least donated item, and clean, dry socks are essential for people experiencing homelessness. Socks are needed for men, women, and children, and crew socks in acrylic and polyester blends are preferred.

You can help by bringing your donations of NEW socks of any size or color to Reformation by Sunday, Feb. 13. Please see Linda Bucher with questions.

Sunday Adult Education Forum: Reading The Book of Revelation Ecologically

The Book of Revelation is perhaps one of the most misunderstood texts in the Bible. It features prominently in the lectionary readings appointed for the Easter season. While often associated in popular culture with apocalyptic end times and used to brush away Christian concerns for the Earth, Revelation is a book of hope and can be a theological resource for Creation care. This adult education forum will situate Revelation in its historical context in which it was written in the first century CE, and closely reread Revelation 12 in which Earth herself features prominently as a character.

Saturday Workshop: Rising from “The Fall”: Creation Care in Genesis 1-4

Genesis 1-4 presents three stories—a beautifully expansive liturgy of the creation of the world in seven days, one about the relationships among God, Earth and humanity in the Garden, and another about the first murder that leads to the founding of the first city. In four short chapters the biblical story moves from God’s intention for intimate inter-relationship to brokenness and alienation. This workshop will take a classically Lutheran “both/and” approach, exploring both how Creation and humanity are gifted with the grace of relationship from God and how humanity continually falls short in those relationships. In preparation for the celebration of Eco Sunday, these texts will be read with an eye toward how they might serve as theological resources for enlivening Creation care today.

Prepare for First Communion

It is our practice at Reformation that children receive their first communion at the desire of their parents. This can be done for any age (or ages if you wish for siblings to receive first communion together).

First communion instruction is an at-home lesson set that can be completed at your own time and pace. Any time we celebrate communion as a congregation is a date that can be chosen.

WINTER WALK

STEP OUTSIDE THIS WINTER

The Eco Ministry invites you to use this simple outline to walk, reflect, and pray this winter.

SEARCH FOR SNOWFLAKES

Every snowflake has a unique design. They remind us of how God has created each of us with our own unique design. Use this time outside to look for the gifts of winter in creation.

READ SCRIPTURE

Many passages of the Bible discuss the beauty of God's work in creation. Read Psalm 148 before and after your walk. What stands out to you? Talk or write about your thoughts on the passage.

CAPTURE IMAGES

Capture images of your time outside. Use them as a devotional practice. Take photos, draw or write what you see. Look for where you see God at work in creation.

SHARE YOUR EXPERIENCE

Invite others on your walk. Share photos from your walk with family and friends (or in the Reformation Facebook group!). Talk about the scripture you read and what stands out to you, where you noticed the passage come to life outside. Share your highlights with each other.

LEARN MORE

Our Eco Ministry has compiled a number of resources to help you learn and act for the care of creation. Join us at relcmedia.org/ecojustice.

ECO Tip

Feeling sick inside this winter? So is the air inside your home. Follow these simple tips to keep your home and family healthy.

1. Keep your house clean of dust mites, animal dander and other pollutants by cleaning and using fans to vent to the outdoors.
2. Prevent moisture buildup by keeping humidity levels below 50%.
3. Make sure cleaners are clean, avoid toxic sprays and air fresheners.

Have a safe and healthy new year!

Save the Date!

Eco Ministry is planning to have their next Rose Tree Road clean up on Saturday, March 19. Please mark your calendars and join us for some fresh air!

“To those who have hunger, give bread; to those who have bread, give a hunger for justice. Amen.” – Latin American Table Blessing

Over 30 years ago, the Souper Bowl of Caring began with this prayer: “Lord, even as we enjoy the Super Bowl football game, help us to be mindful of those without a bowl of soup to eat.”

The movement that started has since raised over $170 million for local food assistance organizations across the country.

The Souper Bowl of caring is just one way in which we are able to serve our neighbors right in our own community. According to statistics 1 in 6 people in America face hunger. The people in our area served by the Media Food Bank know the realities of food insecurities. Donations to food banks help to alleviate the hunger that so many face.

You are invited to bring a food donation with you to worship on Sunday, February 13. This year we are collecting honey, canned fish, dried beans, and diapers. (Food banks have an overabundance of soup donations right now and are in need of these other staples for those they serve.) The collected items will be taken to the Media Food Bank for distribution.

Last year we collected 510 items for the food pantry. We invite you to play a part in helping to feed those in need as we hope to meet or beat that number. Together we tackle hunger!

Blessings!

Pastor Alina Gayeuski
