The soup supper will be followed by Holden Evening Prayer in the sanctuary at 7:30 pm. The first gathering will be held on February 25. You are welcome to join us for both – or come and join us at the start of worship. If you are able to bring soup or bread to the meal, please sign up in the lobby.

First communion instruction is an at-home lesson set that can be completed at your own time and pace. Any time we celebrate communion as a congregation is a date that can be chosen.

Families desiring for their child to receive their first communion should contact Pastor Eileen.

Tuesdays, 7:00 pm at Reformation OR Wednesdays, 2:00 pm at Reformation • Karen Chorney

Join others for a discussion of the Lent Book, This Here Flesh. In her book, Cole Arthur Riley, the creator of Black Liturgies, weaves stories from three generations of her family alongside contemplative reflections to discover the “necessary rituals” that connect us with our belonging, dignity, and liberation.

CG 3: Adult Confirmation

Thursdays, 6:30 pm at Reformation (online option by request) • Pastor Eileen

Are you new to Lutheranism? Has it been a while since you've been confirmed? Are you interested in learning more about basic tenets of Lutheran faith? Join Pastor Eileen for Adult Confirmation this Lent! Our curriculum will utilize the Small Catechism and cover similar faith topics as our 7th and 8th grade Confirmation class, such as: Commandments, Lord's Prayer, Creeds, Sacraments, Protestant Reformation, how we read the Bible, and more. Group will conclude with an Affirmation of Baptism during worship.

CG 4: Reading and Creating Our Blessings

Tuesdays, 2:00 pm at Reformation (Starting 2/24, six weeks) • Pamela Poe

Each week, we will enjoy selected readings from two books dedicated to blessings. No book purchase is needed! John O'Donohue's “To Bless the Space Between Us” and Kate Bowler's “The Lives We Actually Have: 100 Blessings for Imperfect Days” will provide our selected readings and writing prompts for journaling, writings or drawings that follow. After group members read together the selected blessings for the week, there is time to create blessings, prayers or simple artworks in response with optional sharing.

CG 5: Faith and Civic Life

Sundays, 9:45 am at Reformation (six weeks) • Pastor Alina

The newest ELCA Social Statement is titled Faith and Civic Life: Seeking the Well-being of All. ## CG 6: Game Night

Fridays, 7:00 pm at the Forsters • Kristen and Brian Forster

Come enjoy fellowship and snacks/dinner over a rousing vintage board game! Fun for adults of all ages! We have tons of vintage games or bring your own.

CG 7: Lenten Lunch Bunch

Saturdays, 12:00 noon at Various Locations • John Grantland

Join us for lunch during Lent! The food selections will go where the fellowship takes us. They may be eclectic, they will not be heart healthy, but most certainly fun! Looking forward to spending time together during one of my favorite seasons of the year.

CG 8: Rooted in Wonder

Wednesdays, 7:00 pm at the Leighton-Clarke Residence (Starting 2/25, six weeks)

Kathie Leighton and Louise Clarke

This six-week journey, titled “Rooted in Wonder,” offers a unique space where the lyrical observations of Aimee Nezhukumatathil's World of Wonders meet the ancient botanical wisdom of the Bible. Each week, we will gather to explore a specific “theme of wonder”—such as resilience, grace, or hidden beginnings—linking a contemporary essay to a specific Biblical plant.

CG 9: Color Your Blessings

Thursdays, 6:30 pm at Reformation • Patty Boccella

Recent studies show that coloring is an emerging therapeutic way to clear your mind and lessen your worries. Join us as we take some time to relax while also reinforcing our faith with biblical themed adult coloring pages!

Reformation School Corner

by Erin Hayes

Reformation Nursery School and Reformation After-K enjoyed an exciting first half of the school year! Nursery School students were busy with multiple performances for their families on Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas and continue to enjoy Chapel Time with Pastor Eileen and Pastor Alina. To fortify our curriculum unit on snow and ice, we welcomed Digger and David for a special science assembly. After-K students are flexing their play muscles in multiple new dramatic play areas- from Santa's workshop to a bakery to a veterinarian office! They especially love Watercolor Wednesdays- where students are invited to make a beautiful new watercolor painting every week.

We look forward to a robust second term with parent teacher conferences and a special visit from Judy Tudy in the spring.

Acolyte and Crucifer Training

Are you interested in becoming an Acolyte or a Crucifer? If so, please join Pastor Eileen on Sunday, February 15 at 9:45 am for training.

Dear Reformation,

“I would hurl words into this darkness and wait for an echo, and if an echo sounded, no matter how faintly, I would send other words to tell, to march, to fight, to create a sense of the hunger for life that gnaws in us all.” - Richard Wright

As we prepare to enter into the season of Lent, we turn our attention to the ways in which our world needs the breath of God. Our Lent book, This Here Flesh, is written by Cole Arthur Riley. Riley is also the creator of the Black Liturgies project on social media, and her first book of the same name. Her work includes breath prayers, poems, and meditations to strengthen us for the work we are called to do as children of God in a weary world. We share in one of Riley's breath prayers together:

INHALE: Lord, transform my hungers.

EXHALE: Let my desires be for justice.

In Peace,

Pastor Eileen (she/her)

Thank You from Valerie Rozek!

Dear Pastors and Members of Reformation,

I came to Reformation from Messiah Lutheran in Newtown Square eleven or so years ago, not knowing if it was the right decision, but you needed a traditional church musician, and I was in need of a position. It was indeed the right decision and a blessing to me to be involved with such caring clergy and a wonderful, supportive congregation.

A church musician does not worship the Lord through music alone. It takes pastors and the congregation to sing liturgies and hymns, a choir to sing anthems or ring handbells, and vocal and instrumental soloists to share their gifts. All of this, I have had the privilege of being a part of during my time at Reformation. The Lord has been with us through our triumphs and challenges. I have been honored to know and remember those from the congregation who have passed on to the church triumphant. And, I thank you for all the wonderful services and festival days we have shared, especially our most recent 75th anniversary celebration.

I enjoyed talking with so many of you at the reception held in my honor. Your kind words mean more than you know. I will be taking a break for a few weeks and then will play in a substitute capacity if and where the opportunities arise. Thank you so much, Reformation-- for everything!

Everyday Faith:

What You Didn't Know You Needed to Know.

In a world that often pushes us toward quick judgments and polarization, Everyday Faith is an invitation to slow down, get curious, and engage with the complex ways that religion, spirituality, and worldview shape our daily lives.

A signature feature of the Everyday Faith experience is our Living Library format — offering a unique opportunity to engage directly with individuals from a variety of faiths, spiritual paths, and worldviews.

REFORMATION TIMES

February 2026

MISSION: Called by Christ, we INVITE all people, SERVE our neighbors, and BUILD a living faith.

WELCOME: Called by Christ we invite all people, celebrating the diversity of God's creation. Reformation is an affirming congregation for all: rejoicing with the young and old, welcoming people of all sexual orientations, gender identities and expressions, working to cultivate an accessible and inclusive community for all abilities, and embracing all races, cultures, and faith traditions.

We serve our neighbors following the teachings of Christ. Reformation responds to the needs of the most vulnerable - providing nourishment and comfort, supporting the work of the local and global church, and protecting God's creation for future generations.

We build a living faith emboldened by the Holy Spirit. Reformation embodies the unconditional love of God through worshiping and learning together and valuing the gifts of everyone. To create the fullness of our community of faith, we nurture relationships, pursue racial equity and gender justice, and advocate for the wellbeing of the marginalized.
